SIZES & MEASUREMENTS

All of the costumes are ordered from different manufacturers who produce the merchandise "to order". This means that they make the sizes we order at the time they are ordered; they are not "in stock" items. Please allow for growth when choosing sizes. Remember that costumes will be ordered in February and worn in June. You know your child's growth pattern better than we do! We ask for measurements so that we can compare them to each manufacturer's size charts. Costumes are non- returnable and extra costumes are not ordered. Any alterations will be your responsibility. We will have a seamstress available at the studio at posted times as soon as costumes are delivered.

Parents, please let us know if you are able to help with the show in any way. We will contact you closer to the recital date to let you know where you will be working. Please keep in mind that you will only be able to watch the show you are helping with on the monitors downstairs. The more volunteers we have, the smoother the show runs!
